Franchina & Giordano, PC

Emily F. Franchina and Mary P. Giordano founded Franchina & Giordano, P.C., an A.V. rated law firm over 17 years ago. Both practice elder law, wills, trusts, estate planning, and estate administration.

Ms. Franchina, a graduate of Hofstra University School of Law, became involved in many organizations centered around pro-bono work and community improvement. Emily is currently serving as Vice President of New York State Bar Association and as a Director on the New York Bar Foundation in Albany, Judge Lippman's Access to Justice Task Force.

Ms. Giordano is President of the Columbian Lawyers Association of Nassau County, Trustee of her Parish, St. Peter of Alcantara, in Port Washington, and is a Director on the Ozanam Hall of Queens Nursing Home Board.

Both are active members of the Nassau County Bar Association. Ms. Franchina was the fifth female President in the Association's 107 year history and served in that capacity from 2009-2010.

Linda Oliva, Esq.

Linda M. Oliva is associated with Pegalis & Erickson, LLC, a leading medical malpractice law firm located in Lake Success. She has over 20 years experience representing clients in various types of medical negligence cases which include a significant number of cases involving the failure to timely diagnose and treat breast cancer and other women's health issues.

She is an advocate for breast cancer awareness and lends her support to such organizations as the Babylon Breast Cancer Coalition and the Adelphi Breast Cancer Hotline.

Breast Cancer Research & Awareness

The NCWBF, the charitable arm of the Nassau County Women's Bar Association, is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit charitable organization. As always, proceeds from this year's Golf Outing will be donated to promote Breast Cancer Research & Awareness. Donations are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law. We would like to extend a special thanks to our past honorees and to those who continue to support the foundation.
